Hi Michael, you're confirmed for 1pm PT/3pm CT tomorrow to meet with Allison. Please let me know how it goes. Talk again next week! Lisa

 Excellent, thank you. Sending these references to you shortly. I have a ton more if needed, so don't hesitate to ask if you'd like more. Working with, building relationships and influencing C-Suite/Exec Stakeholders has been something I've taken a lot of pride in during my career. It's also something I truly enjoy, so I'm happy to get in depth with Allison if needed. Much appreciated, Lisa.

Hi Michael, things are progressing nicely on my end. I have one more round of approvals, and will likely have that tomorrow. You'll hear from me again then. Enjoy your afternoon! Lisa

 Thank you!

Hi Michael. I have an update- have a minute to sync this morning or afternoon?

 Sure. I am free now if you are?

Yes I'll call

Hi Lisa, would like your guidance/validation on this. I'd like to connect with Allison (maybe via LinkedIn) and just ensure that the lines of communication are open between us as well. Do you think that is a good idea?

Wed, May 24 at 2:29 PM

Yes let me sync with Allison- I'll see her tomorrow- stay tuned.

Great, thank you. I'm sure this must be tough for you as well, I know how hard you've worked to get us this far. I am going to stay optimistic and follow your lead. Things will work out how they are suppose to :-).

Thank you, Michael, I so appreciate your understanding. This is not the state. I wanted us to be in, but will keep you posted as best I can along the way. I'll circle back tomorrow. 👍

Hi Michael. I didn't get time with Allison today after all. She is heads down. I'll come back to you early next week. Enjoy your long holiday weekend ahead!

Thank you, Lisa. I know I'm just one person in the grand scheme of all that is going on. I empathize with you, Allison and the team having to manage all of it. I remain optimistic and look forward to heading back. Enjoy your weekend as well! 👍

Thank you, as always

Hi Michael. I hope you had a nice holiday weekend! I'm not due to catch up from Alison until next week so don't have an update for you yet I'm afraid. I'm wondering if she's going a different direction with this role, possibly Director level. I'll let you know as soon as I know more. Thank you for your continued patience with us.

Thank you for the update. May I ask if there is/was anything that has given Allison second thoughts about me in particular? The reason I ask is that I am not stuck on titles and am honestly looking for a role I can make a difference in and add value. I appreciate all your updates and transparency.

I'm speculating here but her org structure is corner stone in her decisions right now- vs you the individual- which she's a week away from landing. The challenge with Director for you is the comp- we couldn't get close enough to your expectations I'm afraid. I'll know for sure her thinking on Monday.

Ok, thank you Lisa. Regardless of how the leveling works out, I would still very much like the opportunity to get a view into what it looks like and have a discussion with Allison about it. I am also up for any creativity that she may be able to think through. I am guilty of getting a little too excited about EG and working with you all. It's not a bad thing, it just is what it is at this point. Again, I really appreciate all the updates!

Yes, that my goal too and I'll have clarity when we meet next. And we love your excitement- I only wish we had been farther down the reorg path to have thoughts solidified. Please stay tuned!

:-) Thank you! Looking forward to connecting soon, and hopefully we can get a win-win out of all this! Regardless of the outcome, I have thoroughly enjoyed and been impressed by the process you have driven.

Hi Michael. I have an update on our timeline from Allison- are you free to connect today?

Hi Lisa, sure. I'm very open up until 4pm CST

Okay let me call you now.

Wed, Jun 14 at 12:48 PM

Hi Michael, I hope you've been well and are enjoying the good weather. I noted that we have a meeting today but unfortunately I don't have any updates to share. Alison has further delayed her org announcements, given some other priorities behind the scenes and we're still in the same position I'm afraid.

I wish I had more to share, but will come back to you the moment I do, of course. Thank you for your continued patience and interest in us.
Lisa

Hi Lisa, I didn't have us down for a meeting, but thank you for being proactive and the update. I know you shared it would be a few weeks before an update so my expectations are calibrated there. I did send Allison an LinkedIn inmail, to stay on her radar and open up a line of communication. As always, I appreciate your great communication and updates. It's now hit "too hot" in Austin so lots of pool days with the kids :-).

Sorry, not a meeting but a reminder for me to touch base with you. And yes, still need more time. Glad you reached out to Allison too. Stay cool!!!

:-). Honestly, you have been THE ONLY recruiter/retained firm that has communicated with me transparently and frequently. While this doesn't say much for the rest of our industry, its speaks volumes for you and your work. You are large part of why I'm still so engaged with this opportunity. I hate be so cynical of the Recruiting industry, but being on this side of the desk has opened my eyes to so much.

Hi Lisa, I just wanted to send a quick note to stay on the radar. We are about to head to the lake to celebrate the 4th with some friends. I hope you get a chance to disconnect and enjoy some downtime as well! ~Michael Hey Michael, so nice to hear from you and good timing for your text. Allison has just announced her org plans and we're opening the role this week for internal applications. We do have an internal who'll be coming into the mix so will go through that interview process over the coming few weeks. More to come. Have a wonderful July 4th holiday!

Thanks Lisa!

Hi Michael, it's been awhile and I wanted to touch base and connect again. Are you free for a call today/this week?

Hi Lisa. I am free now if you are?

If not, I have some pockets free tomorrow morningish or early afternoon. Thanks!

Now is great, give me one min

Thanks so much for the call today. I really appreciate the chance to connect and I remain optimistic. Here is a copy of the note I sent Allison last Friday along with the LOR from Claire, who was Bill Ready's COS while I was at PayPal. We return from Costa Rica on the 13th, but feel free to ping me if you have any updates while we are away. Especially if it's good news :-). I hope you are enjoying the rest of your summer, Michael we get back on Sunday, August 13th, but I'm sure I can make it work.

Sounds great

My wife just asked me a question that I hadn't thought of. It might sound silly, but how would you recommend my attire be for the meetings in NY? I've been in Tech so long that it's something I hadn't had to think of :-). Thank you for the guidance.

Not a silly question at all. I would say business casual. Maybe khakis or a pant and a crisp button up. If you want a jacket OK but definitely no tie.

 Perfect, thank you!

Monday 11:20 AM

Hi Michael, happy Monday! I'm just back from vacation and understand your meeting with Michael V was postponed. How did it go with Allison? I'm meeting with her tomorrow and will learn more- stay tuned for a ping from me tomorrow afternoon!

 Hi Lisa, welcome back! Things went well in NYC from my end. I was able to spend good time with Allison and connect the dots on a few things and was also able to have 2 solid conversations with Melissa and Sarah. I'll keep a look out for a ping from you tomorrow. Thank you for checking in, Michael

 Glad to hear it, stay tuned!

Tuesday 12:48 PM

Hi Michael, are you free for a call today? What's a good time?

Hi Lisa, today is a pretty flexible day for me. Let me know what works best for you.

Great, how's 10 min from now at the hour?

 Sure, that works great. Thanks!
